7 WHEREAS, Roger Thurmond, Jr., has been an able assistant to 8 Speaker Gus Mutscher during the Regular Session of the 61st Legis-
9 lature, but was unable to be present during the 1st Called Session 10 due to the many windmill problems that existed in the area where 11 his beloved sheep and goats roam and, further, the press of shear-
12 ing operations that separate the sheep from their fleece, compli-13 cated still more by unavailability of manpower or inability of 14 Roger to pay the shearers within the letter and spirit of 15 House Bill 156 of the Regular Session; and

16 WHEREAS, The House of Representatives labored long and hard
17 during the 1st Called Session but did not produce an offspring;
18 at the beginning of the 2nd Called Session, Roger returned to the 19 House to act as midwife for Speaker Mutscher and, also, because he 20 heard the grinding build-up of momentum for the enactment of a 21 woolgathering tax, among other things; and

22 WHEREAS, The 2nd Called Session did produce an offspring of 23 somewhat doubtful parentage regarding House Bill 4, and Roger 24 performed his duties as a faithful midwife and was present when 25 the labor pains became sharper, the time lapse briefer, so that 26 he deserves a share in the credit for a successful delivery, with 27 complications; and

28 WHEREAS, Perhaps his highest service occurred on another 29 evening when he substituted as the House Parliamentarian, when the 30 Parliamentarian had been stricken by a tiny virus that reduced him
31 from a man among men, a man you could ride the river with, to a 32 man that couldn't even walk down to the river for fear that he 33 would be too far away from that little house behind the big house;
34 now, therefore, be it

35 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 61st Leg-
36 islature, 2nd Called Session, highly commend Roger Thurmond, Jr., 37 for his many services, and hereby give him permission to return
38 to his beloved sheep and goat country.
